The Marketing & Supply Chain Management Department at the University of Tennessee is pleased to announce the acceptance of applications for the 2018 NeXxus Program. The Program dates are July 28-August 1, 2018.

What is the NeXxus Program?
The NeXxus Program is a four-day residential program designed to introduce female high school students from diverse backgrounds to the field of Supply Chain Management.

The program is designed to help students explore the dynamic world of supply chain management and careers within the industry. Students will have opportunities to interact with diverse professionals from business and government, as well as visit and observe them and their work.

What other activities will students be involved?
Students will attend classes, visit a local company and industry firm and shadow the professionals, interact with business students from UT, and hear presentations from various professionals on campus (admissions, scholarship office, Office of Undergraduate Programs).

Who will teach the classes?
The classes are led by faculty members from the Haslam College of Business Marketing & Supply Chain Management Department and area-wide business, and community leaders.

Who may apply?
The NeXxus Program is open to any female high school sophomore. Students must be entering the 11th grade in Fall 2018 with an interest in supply chain management and business in general, and a 3.0+ GPA.

What is the cost?
There is no cost to attend; however, there is a $20 seat reservation fee once selected for the program. All program fees will be covered for students selected to participate in the NeXxus Program. This includes the cost of tuition, room and board, meals, books, and supplies.

What are the requirements to apply?
Students must have an interest in supply chain management and business in general, but are not required to have completed business courses. Students must complete an application, provide a copy of their high school transcript, submit a letter of recommendation, and show involvement in school, community, and/or extracurricular activities.

When is the deadline?
The application must be submitted by March 31, 2018. Students will be notified of their acceptance within three weeks of the deadline.

Where will students reside?
Students are required to live in the residence hall at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville campus to help students become familiar with the on-campus living environment.

Who will supervise the students?
Students will be supervised by University Faculty, Staff, Administrators, and trained college students.

How may applications be submitted?
Applications may be submitted online at http://tinyurl.com/summer2018.
